Sir,

Re Posting of a Chief Officer to Channapatna Town Municipality

With reference to G O No L 937-41-83-44-3 dated 28-7-1944 appointing Mr T V Thimmiah as Chief Officer of Channapatna Municipality I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of letter No C1 738/44-45 dated 10-8-1944 addressed to the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, Bangalore by the Director of Food Supplies, Bangalore (copy received by me) wherein it is stated that Mr Thimmiah is at present working as Head Clerk on Rs 100/- per mensem that he may be fixed at Rs 100/- in the first grade or at the maximum in the second grade and that if this is not possible, he may be appointed as Chief Officer and seconded during his employment in the Food Supplies Department etc This means, he is not likely to accept the post now offered As any further delay in posting a substitute would hamper the work in the municipality where the work has already fallen into heavy arrears, I request that very early orders of Government may kindly be obtained about the posting of a competent Chief Officer to Channapatna municipality I may add that Mr Narayana Sastry was already relieved of his charge on 30-7-1944

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
